

Jennifer H. Wilson
Account Executive
Chesapeake Insurance Advisors, Inc.

Jennifer H. Wilson is responsible for client retention, compliance and the client experience with Chesapeake Insurance Advisors. She has been immersed in the insurance industry since 2002, and most recently obtained a producer license in 2010.

Jennifer joined Chesapeake in 2010 after serving in the hospitality industry for several years. However, she gained her depth of knowledge from her father and Chesapeake Insurance Advisors' CEO and President, Robert F. Houser. She grew up in the industry and decided to join the family business when the time presented itself. Jennifer specializes within the niche market of restaurants across Delaware and assists with compliance for Health Care Reform.

A graduate from the University of Delaware, Business Administration, Jennifer holds a Bachelors of Science Degree in Marketing and Economics, 2006. She is active in the community and currently a member of the National Association of Insurance and Financial Advisors, Delaware Restaurant Association, and previous Honorary Chair for the Delaware Hospice Golf Outing. Most notably, she serves on the board of Wilmington Women in Business as Vice President and President Elect for 2014. She strives to be active in the community and help to encourage the best client experience possible.

Jennifer has been a licensed Life and Health producer since 2010, and completes and exceeds the required amount of ongoing continuing education, in order to maintain her active insurance license and stay current with the state and federal regulations.
